The CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS is cochaired by Senators Bill Frist (R-TN) and Russell Feingold (D-WI) and is funded by the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. Now in its second two-year phase, the Task force seeks to build bipartisan consensus on critical U.S. policy initiatives and promoting U.S. leadership in strengthening prevention, care, and treatment of HIV/AIDS in affected countries.

Kaisernetwork.org, a free service of the Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation, will webcast the session. The webcast, transcript, and related services can be found at kaisernetwork.org/healthcast
