

Expanding Access and Coverage for Women's Health Services:
Are State Solutions Enough?

A Capitol Hill Briefing Series on Women's Health Policy

*Sponsored by the Kaiser Family Foundation and Women's Policy, Inc. in cooperation with
Senator Olympia Snowe and the Congressional Caucus for Women's Issues*

Monday, December 4, 2000
12:00 to 1:30 p.m.
B-354 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Introductions: Diane Rowland, Sc.D., Executive Vice President,
Kaiser Family Foundation
Cindy Hall, President, Women's Policy, Inc.

Welcoming Remarks: Congresswoman Connie Morella

Presentations:

What is the status of coverage for women's health services in the states?

Alina Salganicoff, Ph.D., Director, Women's Health Policy, Kaiser Family Foundation, will present new data on state policies affecting access and coverage for women's health services.

What are the challenges facing the states?

Delegate Joan Stern will discuss efforts in Maryland to address current gaps in access and health coverage for women's health services.

How are employers addressing women's health needs?

Julie Gonen, Ph.D., Director, Family Health, Washington Business Group on Health, will discuss the employers' perspective on improving access to women's health services.

Discussion: Moderated by Cindy Hall