

CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS
Co-chairs
Senators Bill Frist and Russell Feingold

Next steps to strengthen the U.S. approach to HIV/AIDS

Thursday, June 17, 2004

9:00am-11:00am

Hart Senate Office Building, Room 216

I. Welcome

J. Stephen Morrison, executive director, CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS

Preview of CSIS Task Force findings

Opening Remarks:

Senator Bill Frist (R-TN)

Senator Russell Feingold (D-WI)

II. Update on implementation of PEPFAR

Ambassador Randall Tobias, Global AIDS Coordinator

III. CSIS Mission to Ethiopia

Princeton Lyman, Ralph Bunche senior fellow for Africa, Council on Foreign Relations

What does Ethiopia suggest about strengthening the implementation of PEPFAR?

III. Expanding the Global AIDS Coordinator's Toolkit

Phillip Nieburg, senior associate, CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS

Rapid response options – drawing from other U.S. emergency agencies

Mark Schneider, senior vice-president, International Crisis Group

Strengthening military-to-military programs

V. CSIS Mission to China

Bates Gill, director, CSIS Freeman Chair in China Studies

What form of U.S. engagement with China makes most sense?

VI. Wrap up and next steps