

You are cordially invited to a policy luncheon organized by the CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS and The Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation:

“THE TB FRONTIER: NEW STRATEGIES, HIV LINKAGES, THREATS, AND TOOLS”

October 17, 2007

12:00-2:00 pm

Dirksen Senate Office Building Rm. 628

Introduction

J. Stephen Morrison
Executive Director
CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS

Moderator

Dr. Phillip Nieburg
Senior Associate
CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS

Keynote: The Global Effort

H.E. Jorge Sampaio

UN Secretary-General's Special Envoy to Stop TB
Former President of Portugal

Congressional Perspective

Senator Sherrod Brown (D-OH)

TB-HIV Coordination

Dr. Mark Dybul
U.S. Global AIDS Coordinator

Emerging Threats (XDR/MDR TB)

Dr. Mario Raviglione
Director of the Stop TB Department
World Health Organization

New Tools

Dr. Phillip Nieburg
Senior Associate
CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS

Closing Remarks

Dr. Irene Koek
USAID, Chair of the Stop TB Coordinating Board
J. Stephen Morrison
CSIS Task Force on HIV/AIDS