

AIDS 2008
XVII INTERNATIONAL AIDS CONFERENCE
Mexico City, 3-8 August

VIP Speaker Bios

Keren Dunaway GONZALEZ (Honduras), Editor, Llavercitas Magazine

Keren Dunaway Gonzalez, who is thirteen years old, serves as Editor of Llavercitas, a UNICEF-funded magazine directed at children ages 8-12 that are directly and indirectly affected by HIV/AIDS. This bi-monthly children's magazine has a national print circulation of 10,000. Since 2004, Ms. Dunaway also has helped to develop a national radio programme in Honduras, which is transmitted weekly. Since the age of nine, she has participated in several national and international HIV/AIDS conferences and has co-facilitated a number of workshops on HIV/AIDS awareness and sensitivity. Ms. Dunaway has received several awards, including the My Hero Award 2007, given to her and her parents by Aid for AIDS. Additionally, Ms. Dunaway studies theater, dance, and singing, and enjoys spending time with her family and friends.